SCHOOL ATTENDANCE WILL BE ENFORCED UNDER LAW

Under a law passed at the last session of the legislature, the rules governing the attendance of children in school are made very stringent and Superintendent of Schools Roy Good has begun the preparation of a campaign to enforce the law to the letter. School authorities all over the county will be asked to lend their aid and local grammar school trustees took action at a meeting Wednesday evening by appointing the teaching force to conduct the inquiry that is to be set on foot in this district.

Under the new law, a registration of all children under 21 years of age is required every year. With the list thus furnished the school authorities will have a line on every child in the community and those of 16 or under will be made to attend school by recourse to law if that shall be found necessary.

The registration will be accomplished by a house-to-house canvass here by the teachers, and all good citizens will lend every aid in their power and every courtesy as well to those conducting the inquiry.

CASPAR LUMBER CO. TO CONNECT WITH C. W. R. R.

FORT BRAGG, Sept. 30.—Rumor has it that the Caspar Lumber Company is contemplating building a railroad down the South Fork of the Noyo to tap the California Western R. and N. Co.'s line to Willits. In this manner lumber from their mill at Caspar can be shipped out by rail.

The fact has just come to light that right of ways for this route were secured some time ago from the Union Lumber Company, and that surveys have already been made.

Under existing conditions the connecting up of the two roads will not be a very difficult problem as it will only be necessary to build about four miles of road. At present the Caspar railroad runs out Hare Creek and tunnels through the divide, tapping the South Fork of the Noyo about four miles from the main river.

With this link of road connected up, the Caspar Lumber Company will be in a position to haul box cars into Caspar and load lumber for direct shipment to all parts of the continent.

As time goes on it is generally assumed that more redwood will be shipped East to take the place of depleted cyprus market, and much time and trouble is saved in direct shipments.

SAN FRANCISCO MAN KILLS SELF ACCIDENTALLY

WILLITS, Sept. 29—Ernest Blase, a stranger from San Francisco, was accidently killed about 11 miles east of Willits last Friday. He came up from the city about two weeks ago to visit his friend R. G. Hill and that day went over to the Sutton ranch after a cow. They were riding in a buggy and Mr. Hill got out and was walking at the time of the accident. Mr. Blase stopped the horse and was also getting ready to get out and in doing so in some manner pulled a loaded shotgun towards him and it went off and the full charge entered his stomach. He only lived a few minutes after the accident.

Coroner Cleveland was notified and came up from Ukiah to hold the inquest. The jury decided it was an unavoidable accident.

Mr. Blase was a native of Germany and 28 years of age. He has no known relatives in this country. For several years he has been employed at the Union Iron Works and was an iron worker by trade.

The funeral was held at Willits, Monday afternoon.

FOUR YOUNG BURGLARS ASK FOR PROBATION

Clarence Reynolds and Frank Watson, arrested several weeks ago on a burglary charge at Mendocino, were up for arraignment in the Superior Court last Saturday. Both entered pleas of guilty.

"What made you quit your jobs?" asked Judge White. "We didn't like the grub," Watson replied. "How long did you work?" persisted the Judge. "Half a day," said Reynolds. "Umh-humh," said the Judge.

"Your Honor," broke in Attorney L. I. Gibson, who has been appointed to represent the defendants, I would like to have until Monday to consult with the defendants about this matter. I think this is a case for probation, and—"

"I don't think it is," the judge broke in.

"The sheriff tells me that he thinks it may be," Gibson persisted.

"Well let it go over until Monday," said the judge.

When the defendants appeared Monday the case was referred to the probation officer for report next Saturday.

A similar charge against Paul Hile and Delbert Mason will also be reported on at the same time. Attorney K. C. Eversole has been appointed to represent thm.

Dispatch Mechanic Extends Needed Aid

The thanks of both the Dispatch-Democrat's local contemporaries are due C. C. Craddock, our expert linotype mechanic, this week. Both linotype machines went out of commission and Mr. Craddock was called on to make the necessary repairs and adjustments, which he did, putting both machines into running order once again.

Our contemporaries may consider themselves fortunate that the Dispatch-Democrat's policy of hiring only the best help gives others the opportunity of avoiding the expensive luxury of bringing an expert from San Francisco.

71 CENTS PAID FOR HOPS HERE

Those growers who have been holding their hops with the belief that they were worth 65 cents or better, were gratified this week to find that their judgment had been sound. For the price went to 64, then to 65 and on Wednesday reached the unheard of figure of 71 cents per pound. At this latter price three growers, considered among the most conservative, let go their holdings. They were Sanford Bros., who sold 272 bales, Frank Howell, who relinquished his 252 bales, and Greene C. Burke, who put his 103 bales on the market. The buyer in all three cases was Elmer Albertson, who operates for G. A. Proctor.

Wesley Cox sold 38 bales and R. E. McCracken 52 bales to The Wolf Hop Co., represented by F. C. Albertson, at 65 cents. Joe Cunningham sold 85 bales and Mrs. A. Gambrel 123 bales to Elmer Albertson buying for G. A. Proctor, at 65 cents.

SAYS U. S. WONT INTERFERE WITH GRAPE GROWERS

The Santa Rosa Republican of Wednesday claims to have special advices from Washington to the effect that the government will wink at the manufacture of wine from this year's crop of grapes by the growers.

The Republican says:

Grape growers are to be permitted to crush their 1919 crops into wine without interference from the government.

Such is the information received by The Republican Wednesday from Washington. The source of this information, which cannot be revealed at this time, is highly reliable.

If the tax laws are observed, the internal revenue officers will be instructed to keep "hands off", according to the dispatch.

Indications that the war-time prohibition ban may be lifted after all was seen in a statement in the dispatch declaring that wines made now, or before peace is proclaimed may be sold for beverage purposes when President Wilson announces demobilization of the army to peace strength.

This information, coming as it does, directly upon a dispatch Tuesday which suggested that the President would be unable to lift the ban at this time, is considered here as charged with significance. It may possibly mean that demobilization will be declared a fact within a very few weeks.

Such action, however, is also contingent upon a declaration of peace with Germany, so the Senate's early action on the peace treaty is an important factor in the situation.

The Republican's dispatch Wednesday explained further that when such time comes as wine may be sold legally for beverage purposes, the time of its manufacture will not be questioned. This is taken here clearly to mean that grape growers may go ahead with the crushing of their grapes, as they have planned, and hold the wine until the prohibition ban is lifted, which is expected to be in ample time before constitutional prohibition goes into effect next January.

The judge has taken the matter under advisement.

WILLITS NEWS OF PAST WEEK

WILLITS, Sept. 29—Yesterday, at high noon, Miss Juanita Neighbors and Fred Sharp were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the home of Mrs. F. D. Hotskin, Judge E. M. Whitney officiating. The bride was born and raised in this vicinity and is a beautiful and charming young woman. The groom has lived here for about 15 years and is our well known barber. He returned from France about the first of the year after having served Uncle Sam for nearly two years.

It rained here all day Sunday but not very heavy. It was sufficient, however, to put out all the forest fires which have been raging in the northern part of the county. Since the rain it has turned off clear and cool and the air is very bracing.

J. H. Graves, the deputy game warden who has been making Willits his headquarters, has been transferred to Cloverdale, and J. H. Hillard of Laytonville has taken his place. The district is so large that another deputy game warden will be appointed to cover the northern part of Mendocino and the southern portions of Humboldt and Trinity counties.

Brakeman Laughlin Curry lost both of his legs last week when a freight train ran over them in the Eureka yard. He also received other injuries but the doctors think he will recover. Mr. Curry had the Willits-Eureka passenger run up to a few days ago and is very well known by the travelling public.

A son was born to the wife of V. Gunstrom, Sept. 22nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Duncan and Mrs. C. P. Smith motored up to Willits last Saturday to attend the funeral of the late George Clare, father-in-law of R. T. Duncan.

FORT BRAGG NEWS NOTES

FORT BRAGG, Oct. 30—Approximately 35,000 bushels of grain has been threshed between Greenwood and Point Arena this season. The output for the same territory the previous year was 27,000 bushels.

The best crop handled on the lower coast was that of the Howard and Beall ranch. The Clift Ridge ranch produced 3,300 bushels, the Bonee ranch—managed by Mrs. Dilling—3,000 bushels, the Ryan ranch—formerly the Dartt place—2,100 bushels.

D. Manchester, who has been employed off and on for a number of years at the Fort Bragg Garage, arrived this week from Michigan in a Ford. He travelled 4,450 miles in 35 days, his only mishaps being twelve punctures and two blow-outs.

The steamer Fort Bragg loaded here the latter part of last week for the first time since she went ashore on the Mexican coast several years ago. She is now 194 feet long and carries a load of 800,000 feet, or approximately twice that of the ordinary steam schooner.

UNSHAKEN TESTIMONY

Time is the test of truth. And Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test in Ukiah. No Ukiah resident who suffers backache, or annoying urinary ills can remain unconvinced by this twice-told testimony.

Mrs. J. W. Wilson, 208 Scott St., Ukiah, Says: "I was miserable from kidney trouble for a long time and found nothing that would give me relief. Often at night I couldn't sleep, in fact, wasn't able to even lie down. I felt tired all the time and had no energy to do any work. I finally began using Doan's Kidney Pills and after taking four boxes the aches and pains left and I was as strong and well as ever."

Over six years later Mrs. Wilson said: "I am just as strong for Doan's now as when I endorsed them before. They never fail to rid me of my symptoms of kidney trouble."

Price 60 cents at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Wilson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Advt.

REAL ESTATE IS BOOMING IN COAST CITY

FORT BRAGG, Sept. 30.—Real estate sales totaling over $80,000 have been made in Fort Bragg and vicinity during the past week or so, according to information made public this week.

The biggest deal, and also one of the largest made on the coast in a number of years, was the sale of the Ten Mile River Ranch to Howard Bishop of Point Arena, who purchased Mrs. Biaggi's lease of the ranch a year or so ago. The Union Lumber Company owned the property and it is understood that it sold for over $60,000.

This ranch is considered one of the finest on the coast and is used for general farming and stock purposes. Mr. Bishop has between two and three hundred head of cattle on it and has just finished threshing 3,000 bushels of grain.

Foremost in a number of local deals comes the sale of the G. A. Johnson property at the corner of Franklin and Laurel streets to A. Barth, proprietor of the Fort Bragg Bakery. The sale included the business block occupied by the Sugar Plum and the Fort Bragg Bakery, and the selling price is said to be $8,000.

Another sale which is reported to have brought between 6 and 7 thousand dollars was that of D. W. Bailey's "White House" property on Franklin street, to A. F. Borneman. Mr. Borneman is to conduct a rooming house and softd rink emporium, and it is understood that Mr. Bailey will take a much needed rest.

Three nice homes have also changed hands.

John Rinne has sold his home in the Kelly Tract to Helma Maki, Ermine White has purchased the Fred Greenough bungalow, near the high school and F. G. Sharratt has acquired Romie Rafter's home on the same street. The aggregate of these sales is in the neighborhood of $7,000.

THINK STRAIGHT

This is a time for straight thinking. Make sure the other fellow is not talking drivel. Analyze his thought, don't follow it. He may be suffering with phraseologic hemorrhage. It is epidemic now-a-days like influenza and much more serious.

For instance in regard to the Victory Liberty Loan and these fellows who thumb their vests, frown wisely, and say "Let the banks do it. They are bursting with money." They are talking drivel. It sounds fine but it isn't good sense. Nor is it good economics, which amounts to the same thing.

If the government thought it was wise to "let the banks do it," the government would let them do it. There would be no Victory Liberty Loan in the popular sense. But the government knows better than to let the banks do it.

This is the period of reconstruction right now. It is a period of many possibilities economically. One possibility is industrial depression. One preventative of industrial depression is plenty of money at favorable rates of interest to stimulate private enterprise. That means our banks must not be clogged with government securities. It means that we can't afford to "let the banks do it." The people must do it—do it from their earnings, present and future.

Think straight.

Support the Victory Liberty Loan.

Learns of the War.

A woman was discovered in this city yesterday who has lived all through the great war and did not know that it was going on. She is an aged woman of German birth. Her age kept her son from telling her about the horrors of the invasion of Belgium and of the sinking of the Lusitania. He didn't wish her to worry and fret. But the day of the peace demonstration made it impossible to keep silent. The old lady heard the whistles blowing and the crowds cheering and she demanded to know what it was all about. When they told her she raised her hands in a gesture of imprecation and said: "Oh, if only I could get these two hands on the kaiser!" The interesting part of her story is that her husband was a German soldier. The gray uniform was so detested by him that he made his wife, before his death, promise that she would come to America so that none of their sons ever would be compelled to wear the livery of the kaiser.—New York Sun.

CYCLIST UNITS WON PRAISE

How the "Petrol Cavalry" Did Its Part in the Crushing of the Detested Hun.

During the recent actions in France the military cyclist units have won well-earned praise, London Tit-Bits says.

When it is remembered that well-trained military cyclists can cover 60 miles a day on average roads and come into action fit at the end of the ride something of their advantage over cavalry can be realized. Cycles, unlike horses, do not tire rapidly, and, furthermore, require neither food nor drink.

In a rearguard action, when whole armies are falling back into new positions, it is difficult to send up supplies to horses, and even the transport of infantry in omnibuses causes congestion of the traffic. Cyclists, on the other hand, can literally "get through anywhere."

The men are all skilled riders, and practiced shots, and, above all, well trained in map reading and finding their own way. Carrying the normal equipment of cartridges on their person and a further supply on each machine, they come into action quickly and bring their full fire power to bear.

It is now 30 years since military cyclists were officially recognized among the official forces of the crown, but it was never thought that they would play such a valuable part as the "Petrol Cavalry" has done in this great struggle.

Social and Club Activities

Mrs. W. D. L. Held, Editor - Phone 63

(We announce with much regret this week the resignation of Mrs. F. E. Rea, who heretofore has conducted this department of the Dispatch-Democrat.

However, our readers will find in Mrs. W. D. L. Held, whom we have prevailed upon to accept the position and who takes charge of the department this week, a successor ideally fitted to take up the work Mrs. Rea is relinquishing.

Items for the social columns should be telephoned to Mrs. Held, whose number is 63.—EDITOR.)

With the coming of October the vacation season definitely closes and those who have lingered late in the mountains and by the sea, as well as those who have been spending the time in orchard and field, helping harvest the magnificent crops of this year, are constrained to return to homes and accustomed duties. It has been a wonderful vacation year. Freed from the shadow of war, people have felt at liberty to take rest and enjoyment in change and travel as they have not done for several years. Those who were willing and able to work found abundant opportunity and ample remuneration in the orchards, hop fields, and vineyards. And now the students are once more at their tasks in the various schools—the high schools at Ukiah, Hopland and Potter opening last Monday, also nearly all the rural grammar schools of the vicinity. Whether the high wages which the youngsters have been earning are a help or a detriment to them remains to be seen. Many have fears that the earning of five or six dollars a day by a sixteen-year-old boy can do nothing but spoil him, giving the spending habits that go with high wages and making him disdainful of working for reasonable wages when labor shall no longer be in such demand. Let us hope such fears are ill-founded and that the boys and girls who have been reaping a golden harvest will make wise use of it, and that many are putting their savings in Uncle Sam's care in Thrift Stamps or starting savings accounts which will prove nest eggs for future good fortune.

HELP THE SCHOOL

It is a matter of great regret to those who have the welfare of our public schools at heart that there are many parents who are extremely careless about keeping their children regular in their attendance at school. The grammar school has been in session for three weeks and there are a number of children of school age who have not yet entered as well as a considerable lack of regularity upon the part of some who have entered. This is a state of things that is serious in its consequences and ought to be remedied. It seems hardly necessary to remind the patrons of the school that its apportionment is dependent upon attendance and that every day a child is permitted to remain out of school the funds for keeping up the school are cut down. It also seems unnecessary to remind thoughtful people that irregular attendance must diminish the amount of work the pupils can accomplish and lowers the quality as well. This is a matter that must be remedied. Let those who have an intelligent interest in the pupils and the schools do their part by keeping their own children in regular attendance unless absolutely prevented by illness and by helping enlighten others not so interested as to their clear duty in this matter. Further than this, if it develops that there remain parents who are wilfully careless and continue to permit their children to roam the streets when they should be in school, the authorities ought to take legal steps to force proper attendance. Mr. Sefton, the principal of the local school, is striving hard to build up the school and deserves the active co-operation of all good citizens in bringing it up to a high standard of excellence.

WEDDING OF FORMER UKIAH GIRL

Of peculiar interest to many local people is the word that on last Saturday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cunningham in Sacramento, their daughter, Grace, became the bride of Ernest E. Westergreen of Oakland. This charming young lady was at one time a teacher in the elementary school of this place, and still numbers her friends here by the score. Mr. Westergreen is a rising business man of Oakland, being engaged in publicity work there for a large automobile concern. Sincere congratulations and wishes for prosperity go out to the young couple from their many friends here. Mr. and Mrs. Westergreen will make their home in Oakland after a brief honeymoon trip through the northern part of the state. Numerous delightful affairs are being arranged in their honor. Among these will be a pleasant one scheduled for October 11th at the Oakland home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Chalfant, at which will be gathered a large number of intimate friends of the bride.

BAR ASSOCIATION MEETS IN FT. BRAGG

The Bar Association of Mendocino county held its quarterly meeting on last Saturday evening at Ft. Bragg where the local attorneys, Messrs. Pettis, Piersol and Stone were hosts to their visiting brethren of the bar. The hotel Windsor was the scene of the gathering and at 8 o'clock the twelve members present sat down to a most sumptuous banquet. The main courses were peculiarly fitting to be served to guests in the city by the sea, inasmuch as many of the tempting viands were gifts of the sea itself, including crab, abalone, mussels and other dainties. After the supper numerous matters of interest to the association were discussed till a late hour. Those present were Messrs. Bennet and Taft of Willits; C. M. Mannon, J. R. Thomas, Redwine, Held, Preston, Eversole and McCowen of Ukiah; J. W. Kingren of Point Arena and Pettis, and Stone of Fort Bragg.

SQUIRES CHILDREN ENTERTAIN FRIENDS

The home of Mrs. Ada Squires was the scene last week of two delightful juvenile parties. On Friday afternoon the friends of little Edward came in and gave the little chap a real surprise party and the hours were all too short for the fun and delicious refreshments which Mrs. Squires served. On Saturday afternoon David entertained eight of his boy friends, and the occasion was a most enjoyable one to the invited lads. For a couple of hours they played the games that boys love and then devoted an hour to doing justice to the good things which Mrs. Squires provided, sandwiches, candy, cakes and ice cream adding their part to the joy of the festive afternoon. Those who enjoyed David's hospitality were John Edward Keller, Billie Held, Jack and Wakefield Taylor, Edward Frasier, Marcus Keller and John Rowe.

THE MESDAMES MARKS GUESTS OF HONOR

On Tuesday afternoon the hospitable home of the J. M. Mannons was the scene of a very delightful tea, Mesdames Mannon and Seawell being at home to a large number of the friends of Mrs. Henry Marks and Mrs. Adolph Marks, complimentary to whom the very pleasant affair was given. These popular ladies are leaving for their new home in Pittsburgh where they go to be with Dr. Selby Marks, who is resuming the practice of his profession there after eighteen months' service to his country in the hospitals of France. Many regrets are felt over the loss of two such esteemed members of local society and those invited to meet them on Tuesday were very appreciative of the opportunity for wishing them Godspeed and prosperity in their new home. The Mannon home was pleasingly decorated in autumn flowers and foliage and the daintily appointed tea table presided over very graciously by Mesdames Ted Young and Chas. Mannon was most attractive.

FREE MATINEE AS TREAT TO SCHOOL CHILDREN

The children of the elementary schools of Ukiah and adjacent valleys were the recipients of a very pleasant treat on Saturday afternoon. Through their teachers they had been invited to be in attendance at a matinee at the Victory Theatre and they responded in large numbers and spent a most happy afternoon. The thanks of the children are due those who so generously provided the entertainment.

GILMORE FAMILY HOME

Amongst local residents who are returning to town after a vacation in other places are the Gilmore family, who are comfortably settled again in the Preston house on West Perkins street, after a three months' stay on Mr. Gilmore's stock ranch in Eden Valley. With their return life is once more full of pep in their neighborhood as the family includes six lively children under fifteen and these prove quite a drawing power to all the nearby children. On pleasant days there are frequently fifteen or twenty youngsters of varying size and ages at play on the lawn or nearby sidewalks. Mr. Gilmore's property interests keep him away from home a large part of the time but Mrs. Gilmore and the children are here during the school year and form a welcome addition to the neighborhood.

OPENING OF HIGH SCHOOL

The Ukiah High School opened Monday morning with an enrollment of a hundred and sixty-six pupils. This is a few short of the number enrolled last year but a number of former pupils who have been at work during the vacation will no doubt return within the next few days. The Freshmen class is only about fifty per cent of last year's entering class, only thirty-three being enrolled. This is due to the fact that an unusually small number was graduated in June from the fifteen grammar school districts which constitute this Union High School district. Principal Brazier has an able corps of teachers and in spite of the late opening of school all signs point to an excellent year's work. The earliest social event in the school life, the reception to the Freshman Class, will probably be given next Friday.

The party returned to the city on Sunday and were fortunate enough to keep just ahead of the storm.

Mrs. Alice Bertsch is the presiding officer of the Rebekahs and under her regime an era of prosperity and pleasure for the lodge may surely be counted upon.

SEVEN "MISTRESSES OF SEA"

Including Tyre, Only That Number of Nations Have Right to Title of High Honor.

Mark Sullivan, writing in Collier's on "America's Part in the New World—The Heritage of Tyre," quotes another writer as follows, referring to nations that have held the position of the "Mistress of the Seas:"

"Since the day that man first straddled a floating log and started humanity adventuring by sea, the intervening centuries have seen ony seven nations possessed of sufficient genius to dominate the earth's deep waters. During 2,248 years Tyre has had but seven true heirs. Tyre, in her time, was the inspiration of all commerce. Irrespective of nationality, all who trafficked by sea were called 'merchants of Tyre,' and all vessels of burden 'ships of Tyre.' Dynasties lived by grace of Tyre's credit, and died at the calling of her loans. With the passing of Tyre, the position went to Carthage; after Carthage to the Italian cities. Venice, Genoa, Florence and Naples. Italy held her dominance for 700 years, until the Hanseatic League of Cities took the crown of commerce to the Baltic sea. Then Portugal forced herself to the front. That was preceding the discovery of America by Spain. With the aggressiveness of which that discovery was characteristic, Spain took the leadership away from Portugal. Spain held it 200 years and lost it to Holland. Holland held it for some generations and lost it to Great Britain."

The Movies.

American motion-picture films are produced in sufficient quantities in the United States to encircle the globe at the equator. During the year ended June 30 the total length of films exported was 160,000,000 feet, or more than 30,000 miles, and of these nearly 100,000,000 feet were exposed films, ready for use. The remainder were unexposed. This establishes the United States as the world's largest manufacturer of films. Even this falls below the record of 1917, when more than 230,000,000 feet were sent to foreign countries and to our colonies. More than $1,000,000 worth of foreign films were imported during the fiscal year 1918.

Porcelain Candles.

Porcelain candles are the latest development in the problem of cheap lighting. They consist of a small white hollow cylinder in exact imitation of a candle, filled with a few ounces of petroleum and furnished with a wick, which burns quite like a candle. They are much used in the Scandinavian countries.—Dallas News.

HOW IT HAPPENED.

With the easy grace of those who are accustomed by long habit, we swung and swayed upon an East Cleveland street car. As we chatted pleasantly with our next strap neighbor, a man sitting near us arose and offered his seat to a lady. And then we commented to our n.-s. neighbor.

"I've been riding on this line for eight years," we said, "and I have never given up my seat to a lady."

"Then you have never had any manners," snubbed our friend, severely.

"Not so," we answered. "I have never had any seat."

How easily one is misunderstood in this cruel world!

Exhausted.

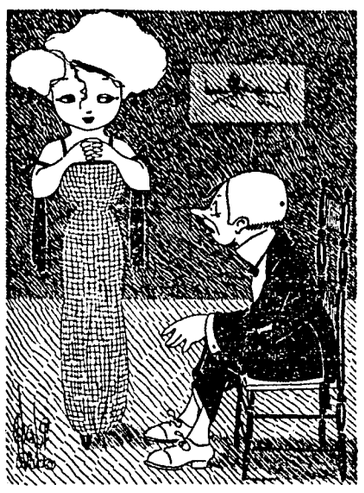
After telling the story of the wanderings of the Israelites in the wilderness a teacher the other day asked:

"When at last after forty years they found themselves out of the wilderness, what would they be?"

She expected the answer that they would be old men and women, but a little girl who put up her hand promptly replied:

"Out of breath."

PROBABLY



"Would you like me to play football dear?"

"Yes; maybe you'll get that nose of yours straightened out."

No Way Out.

Too proud to beg, too honest to steal,
I'd maybe shirk
But there's nothing left, I feel,
Save work.

Readjustment.

"What are your reasons for wanting to get out of public life?"

"Well," replied Senator Sorghum, "this is the era of brand-new talent. I thought maybe it might be a good idea for me to retire for awhile and see if I can't get a reputation for inexperience."

The Difference.

She—There is no doubt about it that marriage has improved your manners, dear.

He—How so?

She—Well, you frequently get up and offer me a chair now. Before you were married you never gave me more than half of it.

The Right Advice.

"What do you suppose Miss Pert said when I asked her if I was in the market for matrimonial consideration?"

"What did she say?"

"That I must go to Par before she could take any stock in my proposition."

Appeal to a Dry Constituency.

"Did you ever make any temperance speeches?"

"Yes," replied Senator Sorghum.

"Did they help anybody?"

"I should say so. They helped me to get elected."

PROBABLY NOT

"I think we could be very happy together."

"But do you think we could be as happy as we could apart?"

Different.

"He can't get blood from a turnip,"
When a collector calls, says Will,
But the persistent mosquito can
When he presents his bill.

Unappreciated.

The Victim—You said you could give my hair an artistic cut and you've made me look like a wild man."

The Tonsorial Artist—I fear you know nothing of art. I'm an insurgent.

Qualifying.

"This man says his character is spotless. Is that so?"

"In a measure. It is so black you couldn't see a spot on it if it were there."

Our groceries are the best, because they are always fresh. R. E. Dimmick. tf

HIRAM CHASED THE PRESIDENT LIKE COOTIE CHASED THE BEAR

(D. D. McDonald in Ontario Herald, September 18.).

This League of Nations question is a raisin' hell for fair. So much is said about it that you breathe it in the air. You hear it on the corner, in the store and in the shop, till we have to really wonder if the row will ever stop.

Prejudiced Republicans whose views are warped and bent, to kill the precious covenant they really seem intent. And our own dear Hiram Johnson, with a pompous, lordly air, is trailing President Wilson—like a cootie trails a bear.

The cootie is a little beast peculiar to the trench, whose only object seems to be to try to raise a stench. He attacked the U. S. soldier boys while they were fighting hard, and seemed to be a product of the Kaiser's own back yord.

When President Wilson started out from Washington, D. C., to explain about the covenant to you, and you and me, our own bright Hiram Johnson took a bracer of hot air—and then began to trail him like the cootie trails the bear.

"Right after you, my dear Gaston," is Hiram's attitude, as he speaks about our President, in words both loud and rude; and when he's got out of topics and has nothing else to tell, he'll even say that Woodrow caused this great H. C. of L.

Now Hiram's playing cootie with an object that is plain. Campaign year is coming and he wants to run again; but this time in his bonnet is a bee of great portent, for Hot-Air Hiram Johnson wants to be our President.

Now Hiram, my dear laddie buck, when first I heard you say that you would run for President I piped a hasty nay. I sat among the scornful and I'm free to tell you that—Hot-Air Hiram Johnson, you are talking through your hat.

Republicans they always flock to hear our Hiram roar; the big hall in Chicago town was jammed clean to the door. And Hiram's wails of vile abuse did fairly rend the air, for he was trailing Wilson like the cootie trails the bear.

Chicago's Mayor cheered our Hi; but what could you expect, for that same man was German-pro, as I now recollect. He boasted in his raucous way, just like a braying ass, "Chicago is a German town and stands in the sixth class."

And every word that Hiram spoke against our President was listened to in that great hall with deadliest portent. Time and time and time again their cheering rent the air. They knew that Hi was chasing him—like the cootie chased the bear.

St. Louis? It received our Hi with arms thrown open wide. They even offered up this prayer: "May Gott mit thee abide." St. Louis? It is German-pro—no beating round the bush. It is the home of those great twins—the Anheuser and Busch."

Horace Greeley once did write: "Go west, young man; go West." To follow that advice our Hi is sure to do his best. We hear the roaring of the wind, as Hiram blows the air, while chasing after Wilson—like the cootie chased the bear.

Republicans they fall for it, and drink in every word. They think that Hi has grown to be a reg'lar looloo bird. They think that he will some time sit within the White House chair. Is not he chasing Wilson like the cootie chased the bear?

He's coming on his westward trip, and soon he'll reach the Coast. "The League of Nations I will kill," is Hiram's common boast. He's following after Woodrow with the deadliest intent: To kill the League of Nations? No. To run for President.

But, dear old brother Hiram, where'er we hear you say that you will be our President, we'll pipe a hasty nay! We'll sit among the scornful and we'll surely tell you that: "Atmospheric Hiram, you are talking through your hat."

Just keep on like the cootie bug—just stay right in the rear; keep following up the President, and don't you never fear, you'll find that you've caught up with him, and all the world will stare to see you've licked the President—like the cootie licked the bear.

"Now that we're married we won't have to write any more letters," said the young man.

WHY

Liberia Deserves Commendation for War Work

Among the enemies of Germany, let us not forget Liberia. This tiny African republic entered the war in all seriousness, has contributed to the victory and bears some honorable scars. It established compulsory military service and sent hundreds of laborers into France for war work. It expects a seat somewhere near the foot of the great peace table.

Some two hundred German citizens controlled 75 per cent of Liberia's commercial activities before the war. These two hundred are now interned in France, and the government took over their enterprises and sold them at auction. It will be remembered that the republic's entire navy was sunk by the Germans last April. It consisted of one small vessel, and the submarine that punctured its hull also shelled Monrovia, the Liberian capital, and killed ten people.

Liberia's military authorities established a basis for determining liability to army duty which is the acme of simplicity. Natives without clothes are not eligible for service, but as soon as a man puts on shirt and trousers he automatically becomes liable for enrollment and service. This is on the authority of Bishop Alexander P. Camphor, head of the Methodist church in the republic. Though Liberia's part in the war has been small, it has been none the less creditable.

Good From Alchemy.

The philosopher's stone never existed except hypothetically in the imagination of credulous humanity. But out of the efforts of many thoughtful men the present has grown with its enlightened views and fuller knowledge. Alchemy, although in many respects a remarkable example of the extent to which human reason may aberrate, can never be without human interest. It brought to view many fresh fields of research, and led to the discovery of many facts of great importance during its strange and devious career.

"Do you, too, want to can the kaiser?"

"Yes, if there is any boiling process about it."

Regular Hours Now.

"Judge, he hasn't worked for about six months," testified an elderly woman in an Indianapolis court recently. She was testifying against her son, age seventeen, who had been arrested on a charge of vagrancy.

"How does he spend his leisure time?" asked the prosecutor.

"Sleeping," was the reply.

When the boy took the stand he denied that he had been out of employment for six months and said his mother had erred as to the length of time, as the last work he did was "about four and one-half months ago."

"How many hours a day do you sleep?" asked Judge Pritchard, to which the defendant replied that he didn't sleep all the time, but just when he felt like it.

"Ever been in jail?" said the judge.

"No."

"Well, they have regular hours over there and I believe regular hours plus a few days' work on the roads will do you good. I will fine you $15 and costs, and you can pay it out in jail."
